

KEY

|   |                    |
|---|--------------------|
| A | butcher            |
| B | plumber            |
| C | counselor          |
| D | personal assistant |
| E | sailor             |
| F | civil servant      |
| G | pharmacist         |
| H | travel agent       |
| I | firefighter        |
| J | scientist          |
| K | screenwriter       |
| L | librarian          |
| M | caretaker          |
| N | psychologist       |
| O | jeweler            |
| P | lecturer           |
| Q | carpenter          |
| R | translator         |
| S | judge              |
| T | vet                |
| U | lawyer             |
| V | receptionist       |
| W | surgeon            |
| X | chambermaid        |
| Y | tailor             |
| Z | engineer           |

|   |  |
|---|--|
| F | a person who works in government offices or who is employed by the government            |
| I | person who puts out fires  |
| T | person who is trained to give medical care to animals                                    |
| H | someone who gives people advice on where to spend their holidays                         |
| W | doctor who does operations in a hospital   |
| X | female worker whose job it is to clean up rooms in a hotel                               |
| N | tries to find out why people behave in a certain way                                     |
| D | someone who works as a secretary for a single person                                     |
| Y | someone whose job it is to make clothes that fit perfectly for a customer                |
| C | someone whose job it is to advise people and help them with problems                     |
| A | a person who prepares meat and sells it  |
| Z | person who designs and creates buildings, bridges etc..                                  |
| V | someone whose job it is to welcome people at a hotel                                     |
| E | person who works on a ship   |
| J | person who works in a laboratory and does experiments                                    |
| B | repairs broken pipes, heating and the water system in your house                         |
| U | person whose job it is to advise people about legal problems and defend them in court    |
| P | person who teaches at a university   |
| G | someone who prepares medicine in a house or hospital                                     |
| M | someone who looks after buildings, especially schools, hospitals and other public houses |
| Q | person who makes things out of wood and repairs them                                     |
| O | someone who buys, sells and repairs rings, bracelets, necklaces etc..                    |
| R | someone who changes writing into another language  |
| S | official who is in control of a court and decides how criminals should be punished       |
| L | person who cares for books and lends them to people                                      |
| K | someone who writes scripts for films and plays   |